

THE FILMMAKER

January 17, 2010

Just a quick heads up to let everyone know that beta testing has officially begun! I have decided to split beta testing up into two phases.

This first phase involves testing the game on all non Windows 7 platforms.

During this phase, I will be looking for feedback relating both to technical performance and gameplay content.

Once this phase is complete and I update the game as needed, phase two will begin.

Phase two will consist of Windows 7 testing, to ensure that the game is fully compatible with Windows 7. I'll keep you updated as testing continues.

Phase 1 of beta testing is now complete.

Starting Monday, I will be moving on to Phase 2, which will consist solely of Windows 7 testing.

Hopefully, it will go a bit faster than Phase 1 did!

Once Phase 2 is complete, the game will go gold!

The Filmmaker* has gone gold! Expect the game to be for sale within a month. I will begin taking pre-orders within two weeks.

April 19, 2010 - The Filmmaker has been officially released.
Enjoy the game, everyone!
